

Michael A. McClure, FAAR, AIA,

Michael McClure is a Distinguished Professor of Architecture at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. He served as the Interim Dean of the College of the Arts from 2020-2022 and the Associate Dean of the College of the Arts from 2013-2020. McClure is a founding partner of the award-winning design research practice emerymcclure architecture. Professor McClure joined the faculty in the School of Architecture and Design in 2001. In 2008 he and his partner, Ursula Emery McClure were awarded the Rome Prize in Architecture. In 2011 he was awarded the UL Distinguished Professor Award.

Born and raised in Pryor OK, he holds a BA in Architecture from Washington University in St. Louis and a MAarch degree from Columbia University. He has taught at the Pratt Institute in New York and at Tulane and LSU in Louisiana. Throughout his tenure at UL Lafayette McClure has made significant contributions to the architecture program winning advising awards and initiating studies with his students into ways of integrating architecture with the specific conditions of coastal wetlands. Before starting emerymcclure architecture with Ursula Emery McClure, Michael worked for Karen Bausman and Associates, Gluckman Mayner Architects, and Robert A.M. Stern Architects.